

‘INDIA WON’T ALLOW HUMILIATION’

PUTIN PRAISES ‘FRIEND’ PM MODI AS ‘BALANCED AND WISE LEADER’

Putin dismissed any political motivation behind India’s purchase of Russian crude oil, asserting that it is driven purely by economics.

Russian President Vladimir Putin has strongly backed India’s decision to continue its oil trade with Moscow, while praising Prime Minister Narendra Modi and taking aim at the US for attempting to pressure New Delhi into halting its energy imports from Russia. Speaking at the Valdai Discussion Club in Sochi, Putin praised Prime Minister Narendra Modi as a “balanced and wise leader” and emphasised the unique bond between the two countries.

Putin dismissed any political motivation behind India’s purchase of Russian crude oil, asserting that it is driven purely by economics. “There is no political aspect here... If India refuses our energy supplies, it will suffer certain losses. Estimates vary; some say it could be around $9-10 billion. But if it doesn’t refuse, sanctions will be imposed, and the loss will be the same. So why refuse if it also carries domestic political costs?” he said.

Putin further expressed confidence in India’s resilience and its refusal to bend under external pressure, saying, “Of course, the people of a country like India, believe me, will closely monitor the decisions made by the political leadership and will never allow any humiliation in front of anyone. And then, I know Prime Minister Modi; he himself would never take any steps of this kind.” These remarks come shortly after US President Donald Trump, during a speech at the United Nations General Assembly, accused India and China of being major financial supporters of the Ukraine war by continuing oil purchases from Russia.

In retaliation, the US slapped a 25 per cent additional tariff on Indian goods in August, effectively raising the total duty to 50 per cent. Putin also underscored the long-standing diplomatic relationship between Russia and India, highlighting historical ties that date back to India’s independence movement. “In India, they remember this, they know it, and they value it.

We appreciate that India has not forgotten it... We have never had any problems or interstate tensions with India. Never,” he said. Referring to Prime Minister Modi as a friend, Putin noted their comfortable and trustworthy relationship, calling him a “balanced, wise” and “nationally oriented” leader. Addressing the ongoing trade imbalance between Moscow and New Delhi, Putin acknowledged the need to diversify imports from India.

The rallies were held on Friday in support of Palestine cities.

Up and down the country, thousands of people gathered for marches and flashmobs, from Turin and Trento in the north to Bari and Palermo in the south. A sea of people clapped and waved the Palestinian flag in Milan as they made their way through the streets, carrying a massive banner reading: “Free Palestine, Stop the War Machine.” Among the crowd in Rome was Giordano Fioramonti, 19, protesting along with fellow university students and professors.

“It’s also our civic duty to show how angry and unhappy we are with what is happening in the world, with our government, to show our support for the flotilla, especially for Palestine, for the Gazans who are being killed, tortured and massacred,” Fioramonti was quoted as saying.

Hamas condemns hawkish Israeli minister’s threats against arrested flotilla activists

The Palestinian resistance movement Hamas has strongly condemned the storming of a detention site by hawkish Israeli minister Ben-Gvir, where hundreds of activists captured on board a Gaza-bound flotilla were held. In a statement released on Friday, the Palestinian group described Ben Gvir’s hostile treatment of the activists as a “stark display of arrogance and a disturbing reflection of the moral and political decay within the Israeli leadership.” The resistance movement further said that the far-right Israeli minister sought to project an image of triumph over harmless activists, even as his fascist regime faces growing international isolation. “This calls for global and international condemnation of him and his fascist army’s behavior against our defenseless people, and for pressure on the entity to release them immediately,” the statement read. Hamas also expressed “pride and admiration for the heroic stance demonstrated by the hundreds of international activists” aboard the seized Global Sumud Flotilla.
