10 foreign spy agencies involved in plot to destabilize Iran: IRGC intelligence

The Islamic Revolution Guards Corps (IRGC) Intelligence Organization says it has foiled a terrorist plot hatched by spy agencies of 10 foreign countries aimed at fueling chaos and threatening Iran's identity.

In a statement on Monday, the IRGC said the terrorist incidents of recent weeks were part of a major US-Israeli plot to undermine Iran's integrity in terms of its geography and national identity.

"The enemy's command room was formed immediately after the 12-day war with the participation of 10 hostile intelligence services," it said.

The IRGC intelligence arm said the plan was aimed at fomenting internal riots coupled with foreign intervention to pose an existential threat against the Islamic Republic.

It noted that the scheme was defeated thanks to the vigilance of Iranian security forces and the collaboration of the people.

According to the statement, the IRGC Intelligence Organization arrested 735 individuals affiliated with anti-security networks, summoned 11,000 vulnerable people, confiscated 743 unauthorized firearms, and identified 46 individuals linked to foreign services.
