LEADER THANKS IRANIANS FOR DISAPPOINTING ENEMIES WITH MULTIMILLION RALLIES

The Democratic News
Tehran, Feb,12

Leader of the Islamic Revolution Ayatollah Seyyed Ali Khamenei has praised the Iranian people for a massive nationwide turnout during the Islamic Revolution anniversary rallies, saying the demonstrations left the enemies disappointed.

“On 22 Bahman (February 11) this year, you accomplished a great deed; you brought honor to Iran,” Ayatollah Khamenei said in a televised message delivered Thursday evening.

“As always, by supporting the Islamic Republic you increased its strength, and the enemies who, in their statements and plans, sought the surrender of the Iranian nation became disappointed,” he added.

He described the reward of this great public movement as greater dignity, stronger authority, and fuller independence for Iran, adding: “Let us all strive to preserve this connection and national cohesion, which is very valuable and precious.”

Ayatollah Khamenei praised the people’s presence in the streets and their unified slogans, saying they demonstrated their identity and character to adversaries.

“I thank the entire Iranian nation and extend my abundant greetings to each and every person present at this great, million-strong gathering across the country,” the Leader said.

Tens of millions of Iranians poured into the streets across the country on Wednesday, marking the 47th anniversary of the victory of the Islamic Revolution with one of the largest nationwide turnouts in recent years.

From Tehran to more than 1,400 cities, towns and villages, vast crowds gathered despite forecasts of rain and snow, presenting a sweeping display of unity following months of military confrontation, riots and intensified foreign pressure.

The 2026 anniversary came in the aftermath of a 12-day imposed war in June 2025, during which Israel, backed by the United States, launched attacks against Iranian interests.

Telangana municipal elections: Counting on February 13

Meanwhile, Malkajgiri and Cyberabad police have issued orders prohibiting the assembly of five or more persons within a 500-metre radius of the counting centre.

The Democratic News
Hyderabad, Feb,12

Counting for the just-concluded municipal elections held across 116 municipalities and seven municipal corporations will take place on Friday, February 13, the Telangana State Election Commission (SEC) announced on Thursday.

Counting will begin at 8:00 am across all designated counting centres. Section 163 of Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita will be in force in and around the centres.

Only the counting supervisors, counting assistants, candidates and their election agents and counting agents will be allowed inside the hall. Mobile phones and electronic gadgets are prohibited.

Webcasting arrangements have been made in all the centers and outside strong rooms.

Counting process

Officials will begin with the counting of postal ballots, followed by regular ballot papers. Ballot boxes from each ward will be brought to the counting table one by one, and ballot papers from each polling station will be bundled in sets of 25.

TELANGANA CM REVANTH DISCUSSES MUSI REJUVENATION WITH RAJNATH SINGH

The Chief Minister formally invited the Defence Minister to attend the foundation stone laying ceremony of the Gandhi Sarovar Proj-

The Democratic News
New Delhi, Feb,12

Telangana Chief Minister Revanth Reddy on Thursday, February 12, met Defence Minister Rajnath Singh in the national capital and discussed the upcoming Gandhi Sarovar Project, which is being undertaken as part of the prestigious Musi River Rejuvenation initiative.

The Chief Minister formally invited the Defence Minister to attend the foundation stone laying ceremony of the Gandhi Sarovar Project, scheduled to be held in the last week of February, noting that the programme will take place at the sacred confluence of the Esa and Musi rivers.

He informed the Union Minister that in February 1948, the ashes of Mahatma Gandhi were immersed at this historic confluence, making the site one of profound national significance, according to a statement from the Chief Minister’s Office (CMO) in Hyderabad.

CM Revanth Reddy stated that the Gandhi Sarovar Project forms a key component of the state government’s comprehensive Musi River

Rejuvenation Project aimed at ecological restoration and sustainable development.

He further shared the government’s vision to develop Bapu Ghat into a world-

Minister Announces 44,706 Accreditation Cards; Revised G.O. Issued

Hyderabad, Feb,12 (TDN)

The Minister has issued detailed instructions for the constitution of the Accreditation Committee and the issuance of accreditation cards, directing officials to complete the process in a transparent, efficient and time-bound manner.

He said the government had earlier issued G.O. No. 252 for granting accreditation cards. However, following meetings with various journalists’ associations and a comprehensive review of their representations and demands, the government introduced necessary amendments and issued revised G.O. No. 103.

With these revisions, a total of 44,706 accreditation cards will now be allocated to journalists across the state, covering print, electronic and digital media. Previously, around 23,000 journalists held accreditation cards. The latest decision will add more than 21,000 new cards, significantly expanding coverage and eligibility.

Under the category-wise distribution, the majority of cards have been allotted to the print media sector, followed by satellite channels, local cable networks, national channels, periodicals, news agencies and digital platforms.

In terms of level-wise allocation, 16,056 cards will be issued at the state and district levels, while 28,650 cards will be distributed at the Assembly constituency and mandal levels.

The Minister emphasized that the issuance of accreditation cards will remain a continuous process, and further cards will be sanctioned in the future based on requirements.

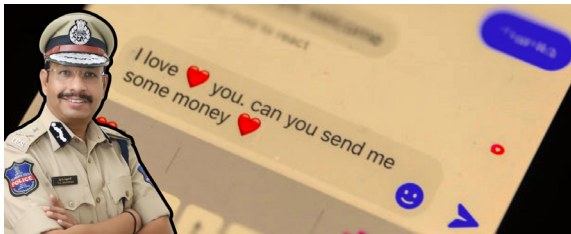

Love can wait, scammers won’t: Hyderabad CP warns youth

Sajjanar used Gen-Z terms to warn citizens about such scams, saying Valentine’s Day is about roses, not red flags.

The Democratic News
Hyderabad, Feb,12

Ahead of Valentine’s Day, Hyderabad City Commissioner of Police VC Sajjanar on Thursday, February 12, issued a public alert warning citizens about “romance scams” that dupe people of money under the guise of love.

Known for reaching out to the public in a relatable manner, Sajjanar used Gen-Z language to warn young citizens about such scams, saying, “Valentine’s Day is about roses, not red flags.”

“Valentine’s Day is about roses, not red flags. But while you’re looking for love on dating apps and social media, someone else might be looking at your bank balance,” Sajjanar said in an X post.

He urged citizens to watch for common warning signs that are often overlooked due to deceptive tactics used by scammers.

Houthi Says Iranian, Yemeni Revolutions Motivate Muslim World

Leader of Yemen’s Ansarullah resistance movement Abdul-Malik al-Houthi says the popular revolutions of the Yemeni and Iranian people offer vital lessons for the Muslim world in the face of enemy plots. In a statement issued on Wednesday, Houthi said the historic resistance of the two countries carries important lessons for the Muslim world, reinforcing hope and confidence in divine promises. He added that the shared experience has been reinforced as adversaries of Islam and humanity are pushing forward their schemes -- among them the so-called “New Middle East” and “Greater Israel” -- using their proxies and allies.

The Democratic News
Gaza, Feb,12

The al-Qassam Brigades, the military wing of the Palestinian resistance group Hamas, has warned that any aggression against Iran is tantamount to an attack on the entire Islamic Ummah.

Qassam spokesman Abu Obeida declared support for Leader of the Islamic Revolution Ayatollah Seyyed Ali Khamenei, as well as the Iranian people and government, in a statement on Wednesday, when the country marked the 47th anniversary of its Islamic Revolution amid recent provocations and threats by the US and Israel.

“We consider any aggression against the Islamic Republic and its brotherly people to be an aggression against our Islamic nation, a criminal infringement on the sovereignty of a resistant Islamic state,” Abu Obeida said.

He also rejected efforts aimed at interfering in Iran’s domestic affairs through “brute force” and further denounced the latest threats and previous attacks against Iran as a “desperate” act of “revenge” against the nation, which has stood alongside Palestinians and supported their resistance against the Israeli occupation.

Meanwhile, Abu Obeida expressed confidence in the capabilities of the Iranian Armed Forces, including the Islamic Revolution Guards Corps (IRGC), to repel any attack, defend the country, and deal harsh blows to the aggressors.
